One Dollar Per Year in Advance

The Official Organ of the Republican Party in Knox County.

When all the delegates and members of the DeKalb County (Indiana) Progressive Convention had assembled, the other day there were just 38 persons present.

Professor Wilson is telling the business men that business is "looking up." Of course it is. It's flat on its back and can't look any other way.

When revenues under a miserable pretense of a Democratic tariff are failing fast, how handy it is to resort to an interval revenue tax and lay it on to a European war.

If the administration declared policy of filling fourth-class postmasterhips only with men who could pass a civil service examination was meant to mean what it says, why are so many of these offices in places where Republicans stood first in that examination, still unfilled?

Can it be that our public school system is such a miserable failure that whenever it sufficiently educates a Republican to pass an examination it destroys his character and fitness for public office at the same time?

The Democrats have seized on the European war as a pretext for all their party troubles. "If it hadn't been for the war," is a familiar phrase with the Wilson explainers just now.

Is Wilson a Candidate?

This question is running under the surface in Washington today. "Is Woodrow Wilson a candidate for the Presidential nomination two years hence?"

To suggest he may not be a candidate is less majestic at the White House; to hint he may be is regarded as high treason in the office of the Secretary of State. So, what's the answer?

Of course, the Baltimore platform indicated that Mr. Wilson would not stand for re-election, but so many Democratic platform pledges have been broken that a little thing like a platform pledge doesn't make any difference to Democrats any more.

In the meantime, our old friend, Champ Clark, keeps on sawing wood.

GIBBS

(Rough Rider)

We are having lots of rain in this part now. Corn crops are looking fine.

Mrs. Manda Abner and little one from Clinton, Ind., are visiting her father and family here. They were all glad to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cobb from Pigeon Roost visited home folks at this place Saturday and Sunday.

The tie business will be dull now because Andrew Cobb and L. D. Jarvis have begun making and handling.

John J. Nelson from Williamsburg is here on business.

School at this place is progressing nicely with Thomas E. Sayer as teacher.

Miss Lucille Woodson, of Flat Lick, came down Thursday of last week. She made her home with her sister, Mrs. Moore, while here.

Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of Execution No. 3772, to me directed, which issued from the office of the Clerk of the Knox circuit court, in favor of T. J. Vermillion, and against James D. Jarvis, I will, on the 28th day of September—it being the first day of the regular term of the Knox county court, at the court house door, in the city of Harboursville, Kentucky, expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder, one-eighth undivided interest in a boundary of land lying in Knox county, Kentucky, on Phillips Fork of Kelly's fork of Little Richland creek, and being Lot No. 6, in the division of the lands of Dutton Jones, deceased, which was conveyed by J. R. Jones, etc., to Elizabeth Jarvis, by deed of date September 9, 1901, and recorded in deed book No. 2, at page 19. Knox county court clerk's office, and levied upon as the property of James D. Jarvis. And I will proceed to sell said interest in said land, or so much thereof as will be necessary to satisfy said execution and costs thereon, on a credit of three months, the purchaser giving bond with approved security to have the force and effect of a judgment, with lien retained upon said land to satisfy said bond.

This 9th day of Sept., 1914.

S. L. LEWIS, Sheriff
Knox County.

Daily Thought.
What do we live for if not to make the world less difficult for others?—George Elliot.

Remarkable Promenade.
At a New York hotel a man who had suddenly become wealthy from an oil well venture had left his family, which had accompanied him to the city, in their rooms so long that they had become uneasy about him. At last he returned to the rooms, and to the anxious inquiry of his wife, "Where in the world have you been so long?" he responded, calmly: "I've just been in the cuspidors, waiting for and on."
